FALL CAMPAIGN INTERNS

Evolve California, a local non-profit is hiring Fall Campaign interns to help build our statewide campaign to reform Prop. 13 and restore billions of dollars to our schools. Interns will be working on a statewide ballot initiative that we have qualified for the November 2020 ballot. We are building a movement to make education a priority over corporate tax breaks, and we want you to be a part of the team. As an intern, you will participate in weekly trainings on various organizing and leadership skills; help to recruit volunteers, generate campaign products; develop and execute a project based on your interests to move the campaign forward. Interns must have a passion for social and economic justice and an interest in grassroots or political organizing.

- Minimum 12-15 hours/week is required
- Internship will run from September 10 - early December
- Office location: 1385 Mission Street, San Francisco
- Compensation will be provided to cover transportation costs
