ARCHIVAL CREATORS FELLOWSHIP

Through the Archival Creators Fellowship Program, fellows will partner with South Asian American Digital Archive (SAADA) to create archival collections that reflect the histories and perspectives of the most marginalized groups within the South Asian American community. These include, but are not limited to, communities that are working class, undocumented, LGBTQ+, Dalit, Muslim, Indo-Caribbean, or otherwise excluded or overlooked in mainstream South Asian American narratives. No formal archival training is necessary, but applicants should have a strong demonstrable interest and commitment to community memory and storytelling.

Fellows are expected to dedicate approximately 8-10 hours/week to their project over the duration of the fellowship period from October 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020 (40 weeks).
